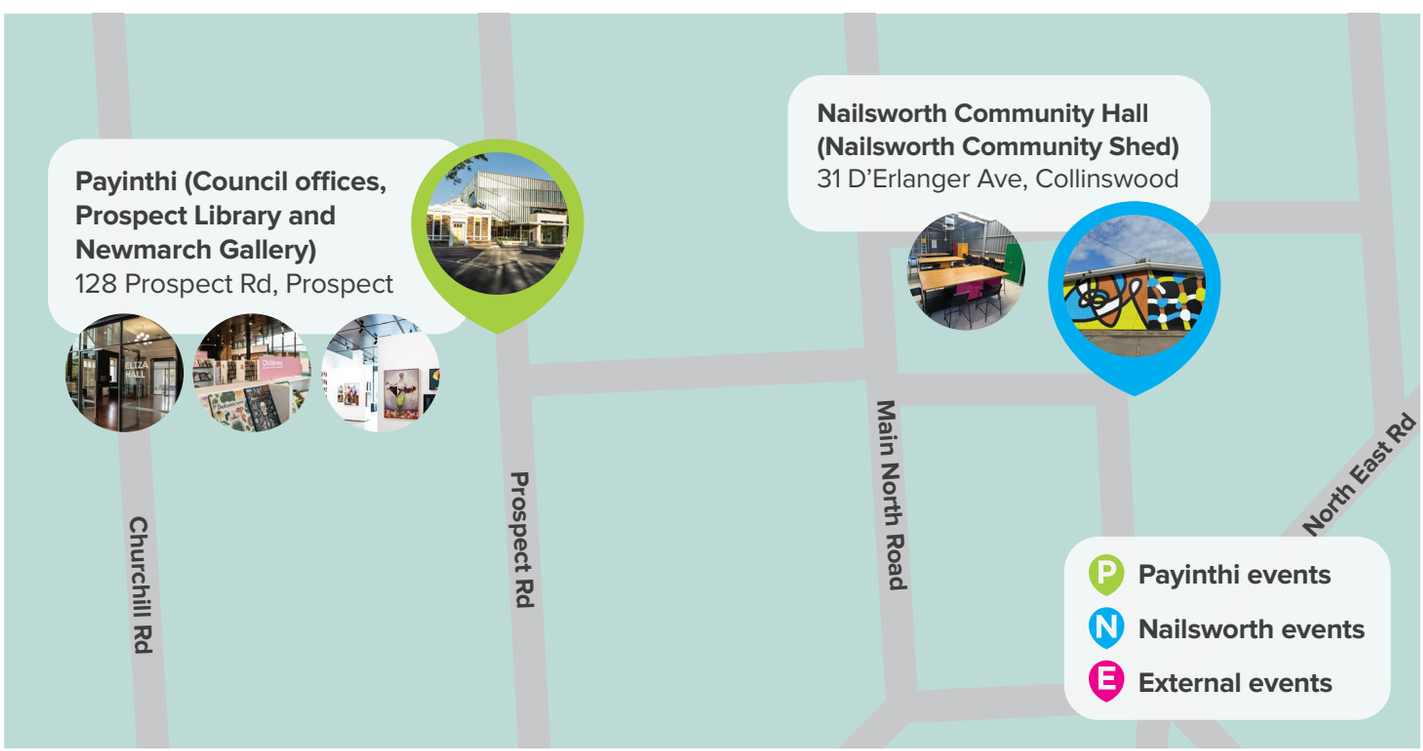
Our community spaces

Discover Prospect's two community spaces.



Hire a Council venue

We provide a range of community venues, meeting rooms and other facilities for hire.

This includes facilities such as the heritage listed Eliza Hall, our open green spaces in Barker Gardens and Prospect Memorial Gardens, or even our Tirkanthi Kuu boardroom for professional functions.

Scan the QR code to view all hireable Council facilities, including upcoming availability and rates, online at SpacetoCo.

Upcoming featured programs and events

Uncover, explore, and be inspired with a variety of exciting programs throughout the year.

Prospect Fringe

21 February - 23 March 2025

Prospect Fringe returns to our city in 2025, bringing the best of the festival to your doorstep.

Immerse yourself in a whirlwind of music, theatre, comedy, cabaret, and much more!

Even the little ones will have a blast with dedicated children's entertainment and vibrant visual arts displays.

Visit prospect.sa.gov.au/prospect-fringe for the full program. We can't wait to see you there!

Neighbour Day

30 March 2025

Celebrated on the last Sunday of March each year, Neighbour Day aims to foster stronger community bonds by encouraging residents to connect with their neighbours.

This initiative seeks to combat loneliness, build community resilience, and raise awareness of the importance of neighbourly relationships.

Visit prospect.sa.gov.au/neighbour-day for more information on making local connections.

South Australia's History Festival

1 - 31 May 2025

Prospect is proud to showcase our state's rich history through a wide range of events for South Australia's History Festival this year.

The month of May is a time to come together and explore the state's places and spaces, stories, collections and ideas that make us who we are.

The festival is about much more than looking back - it's about drawing on the past to imagine the future, making time to share activities with friends, creating meaningful experiences and learning more about what makes this place what it is today.

Visit prospect.sa.gov.au/sa-history-festival to find out more about what's on offer.

DreamBIG in Prospect

5 May - 12 June 2025

Celebrating its incredible 50th anniversary, DreamBIG is bringing a dazzling array of arts experiences to the children of Prospect this autumn.

This year's theme, "I was, I am, I will be," encourages young minds to think about how we celebrate milestones and what it means for our past, present and future selves.

Join us for a captivating program of events and workshops designed to spark creativity and inspire the next generation of artists.

Visit prospect.sa.gov.au/dreamBIG-in-prospect for the full program.

Opened in 2019, Newmarch Gallery showcases the works of both established and emerging artists, with solo and group shows across various mediums.

You can find the gallery inside Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect). All exhibitions and openings are free.

For more information, and to book your free exhibition opening ticket, visit newmarchgallery.com.au.

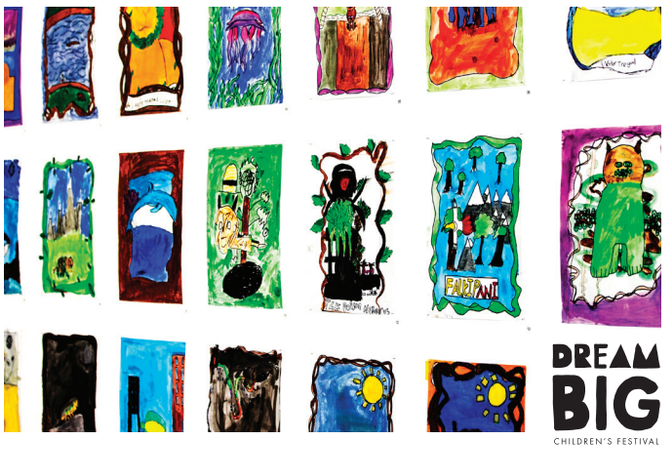
Clang

By Billy Oakley

Exhibition: 21 February – 22 March 2024

Opening: Friday 21 February, 6pm - 8pm

Billy's work blends personal themes with humour and sincerity, featuring moody, cartoonish paintings of dark landscapes and playful animals. His art explores anxiety, urbanisation, and self through mysterious visuals, inviting viewers into a secret dialogue about dreams and identity.



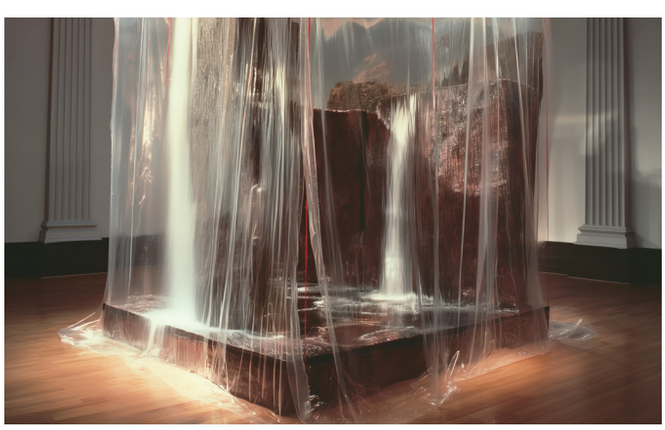
Local Schools Exhibition

By Various artists

Exhibition: 9 May – 7 June 2025

Opening: Friday 9 May 2025, 6pm - 8pm

Part of the DreamBIG Children's Festival, this exhibition features the creative works of students from our local primary schools.



Collective Visions

By Photographic Imagery Collective

Exhibition: 28 March – 3 May 2025

Opening: Friday 28 March, 6pm - 8pm

Collective Visions is a showcase of contemporary photography by Ed Douglas, Vicky Dennison, Joe Felber, John Gitsham, David Hume, Mark Kimber, Heather Petty, Sam Oster, and Rosina Possingham. This is a group of photographic artists who are diverse in their practice but united by a desire to advance fine art photography in its scope and reach.

Information that Moves

Laura Wills and William Cheesman

Exhibition: 13 June – 12 July 2025

Opening: Friday 13 June, 6pm - 8pm

Information That Moves is an ephemeral installation investigating the science and stories of the underground. We will explore the world of fungi and mycelium as a metaphor for different ways of thinking, systems and behaviours.

Council services

Community bus

We offer door-to-door community bus services for our residents.

These services are coordinated by the Prospect Community Support Team and our dedicated volunteer bus drivers and bus assistants.

Payinthi/Prospect Library

This service gives you the opportunity to browse through Prospect Library, borrow books, magazines, newspapers and DVDs, and explore the latest exhibitions at Newmarch Gallery.

Available every Tuesday morning, get dropped at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect) and home again.

Door to door shopping

Every Tuesday and Friday morning, this service takes you to Northpark Shopping Centre for grocery shopping, banking, or socialising for around 90 minutes.

Pick up times begin from 9am, depending on numbers and availability.

Due to limited space on our community buses, each person is limited to 2 shopping bags or 1 personal shopping trolley.

For more information, please visit prospect.sa.gov.au/community-bus or contact the Prospect Community Support Team on 8269 5355.

Justice of the Peace

We offer free Justice of the Peace (JP) services at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect).

Our volunteer JPs are available from 9am to 4pm Monday to Friday, and 11am to 1pm on Saturdays.

No bookings are necessary, but please ensure the following to help with your session:

- Bring appropriate ID, as the JP will need to confirm your identity
- Ensure you have the original documents for certification
- If you require photocopying services, please bring a debit or credit card as our printing services are cashless

Please note that our drop-in service is limited to approximately 5 minutes per person, and no more than 10 pages that need witnessing.

If you have complex documents requiring more time (such as Advance Care Directives), your service may be interrupted once or twice as you will be asked to re-join the queue while others receive assistance.

JPs that can assist in languages other than English

- Vietnamese - Thursdays, 11.30am to 2pm
- Arabic - 1st and 5th Saturday of each month, 11am to 1pm

For more information, please visit prospect.sa.gov.au/justice-of-the-peace.

Immunisations

In partnership with Eastern Health Authority (EHA), we offer free immunisation clinics for residents.

Our monthly pop up clinic is held on the second Wednesday of the month from 4pm to 6pm at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect).

EHA provides vaccines recommended for children and adults on the National Immunisation Program (NIP) to people with a current Medicare card.

EHA also provides the School Immunisation Program (SIP) and adolescent catch-up programs for students in EHA council areas.

Annual flu vaccinations, including adults and children eligible to receive free flu vaccine under the NIP, are also available.

Book your free immunisation today by visiting eha.sa.gov.au/booking/start.
