Discover Prospect's two community spaces

With the majority of our programs and events occuring across our two sites (Payinthi and Nailsworth Community Hall), it's easy to find your way around. Within this guide, both Council and community-led programs each have a coloured location marker, indicating where they take place.

For more information on any of our Council's upcoming events and programs, please call our friendly Customer Service team on 8269 5355 to be put through to the right person.

Council services

Community bus

We offer door-to-door community bus services for our residents. These services are coordinated by the Prospect Community Support Team and our dedicated volunteer bus drivers and bus assistants.

For more information, please visit prospect.sa.gov.au/community-bus or contact the Prospect Community Support Team on 8269 5355.

Prospect precinct bus service

Browse local shops, visit Prospect Library or catch up with friends over a coffee with this free bus service that takes you to the heart of Prospect Road.

Operating on the first and third Thursday morning of each month, get dropped off at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect) and home again.

Door to door shopping

Every Tuesday and Friday morning from 9am, this service takes you to Prospect Central Shopping Centre for grocery shopping, banking, or socialising for around 90 minutes.

Community bus hire

We offer friendly, affordable bus hire for local community groups running not-for-profit events, activities or services.

Justice of the Peace

We're pleased to offer free Justice of the Peace (JP) services at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect). Our dedicated volunteer JPs are generally available to assist you throughout the week.

To ensure a smooth visit, please check our online roster to confirm JP availability before you head in. Find the link on our website below.

No bookings are necessary for our drop-in service, but to help us assist you efficiently, please remember to:

- Bring appropriate ID so the JP can confirm your identify
- Bring original documents for certification, not copies.

Please note:

Our drop-in service is designed for quick assistance, limited to 5 minutes per person and a maximum of 10 pages for witnessing.

If you have complex documents that require more time, such as Advance Care Directives, we recommend making an appointment directly with one of the following JPs:

- C Whiteside: 0403 439 148
- A Romaniuk: 0413 491 415.

Language support:
We're proud to offer JP services with language support:

- G Le-Huy (Vietnamese speaker) Thursdays, 11:30am - 2pm
- R Ibrahim (Arabic speaker) 1st and 5th Saturday of each month, 11am - 1pm.

For more detailed information about our JP services and to view our online roster, visit prospect.sa.gov.au/justice-of-the-peace.

Immunisations

In partnership with Eastern Health Authority (EHA), we offer free immunisation clinics for residents. Our monthly pop up clinic is held on the second Wednesday of the month from 4pm to 6pm at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect).

EHA provides vaccines recommended for children and adults on the National Immunisation Program (NIP) to people with a current Medicare card.

EHA also provides the School Immunisation Program (SIP) and adolescent catch-up programs for students in EHA council areas.

Annual flu vaccinations, including adults and children eligible to receive free flu vaccine under the NIP, are also available.

Book your free immunisation today by visiting eha.sa.gov.au/booking/start.

Hire a Council venue

We provide a range of community venues, meeting rooms and other facilities for hire. This includes facilities like the heritage-listed Eliza Hall, our open green spaces in Barker Gardens and Prospect Memorial Gardens, or even our Tirkanthi Kuu boardroom for professional functions.

Scan the QR code to view all hireable Council facilities, including upcoming availability and rates, online at SpacetoCo.com.

Upcoming featured programs and events

Uncover, explore, and be inspired with a variety of exciting programs throughout the year.

These are just some of the things we are doing that connect with state-wide and national campaigns. Scan the QR code to visit our website for these events and more across our city!

Nature Festival

25 September - 11 October 2026

Nature Festival returns in 2026

This year's theme, 'SEED,' celebrates new beginnings, renewal and the quiet power of possibility. Inspired by the cycles of nature, SEED reminds us that meaningful change takes time, care and a shared responsibility to the natural world. Right here in Prospect, we're bringing this theme to life with an exciting array of programs and activations for all ages - but especially our littlest nature lovers. Join us to explore and reconnect through hands-on nature arts and craft workshops, live animal visits, and more!

Spaces are limited so visit prospect.sa.gov.au/nature-festival to secure your spot.

Be Well Prospect

1 - 31 October 2026

Join us for a month-long celebration of physical health, mental wellbeing and community connections

This October we're launching the inaugural Be Well Prospect! Coinciding with National Mental Health Month, the program will highlight and promote a wide range of wellbeing focused activities, events and experiences taking place across our community. Whether you're looking to get active, take time for yourself, learn something new or connect with others, Be Well Prospect is an opportunity to discover local programs and embrace positive wellbeing practices.

Keep an eye on our socials and visit prospect.sa.gov.au/be-well-prospect for all the latest updates.

Prospect Spring Fair

Saturday 31 October

A (spooky) day of fun you won't soon forget

Mark your calendars for Saturday 31 October at Broadview Oval/Yarnta Tutu yarta for the long-awaited return of our Prospect Spring Fair.

Grab a bite to eat, browse over a hundred craft and artisanal stalls, dance to fantastic local talent on the main stage, jump on a ride, or showcase your creativity with a range of Halloween-themed art and craft activities suitable for all ages.

For all the adult competitive eaters amongst us, we're hosting the inaugural Pie-Eating Contest, and of course, it wouldn't be the Prospect Spring Fair without the iconic Mini-Dachshund Race.

Keep an eye on our socials and visit prospect.sa.gov.au/springfair for all the latest updates.

School holidays

26 September - Sunday 11 October 2026

Looking for ways to keep your kids entertained and engaged during the school holidays? Look no further than our exciting line-up of school holiday programs!

With a strong focus on nature and the environment to coincide with this year's Nature Festival, this school holiday program is filled with hands-on activities and workshops to delight all ages.

Your child will develop new skills and knowledge, make new friends, stay active during the break, build confidence, and have a blast creating lasting memories.

Experienced staff and facilitators keep things safe and fun, and with a variety of programs at different prices, there's something for every budget.

Scan the QR code to visit our website for the full program.

Catch live music at Club5082

Unwind and discover fresh sounds at Club 5082, Prospect's vibrant live music venue.

On regular Friday nights, watch as Eliza Hall at Payinthi comes alive with the energy of local, interstate, and even international acts! Immerse yourself in a diverse lineup of concerts scheduled, appealing to a range of ages and musical tastes.

With a full bar on-site, it's the perfect place to unwind with friends and enjoy a night out on Prospect Road.

Stay up to date with upcoming acts by scanning the QR code.

In Between

Georgina Willoughby and Cecilia Gunnarsson

Exhibition: 21 August – 19 September 2026

Opening: Friday 21 August, 6pm – 8pm

In Between presents new paintings and monoprints that trace walking journeys through Kaurna and Peramangk woodlands. Working collaboratively and in parallel, their works investigate a sense of place whilst holding reverence for local endemic landscapes.

At the still point of the turning world

Sahr Bashir and Leslie Matthews

Exhibition: 25 September – 24 October 2026

Opening: Friday 25 September, 6pm – 8pm

Drawing upon the stillness and the movement inherent in nature, this exhibition embodies the fleeting moments of time. Exploring both personal and place-based narratives, each artist uniquely responds to the physical and the sensory through a series of multi-media explorations.

Hyperobject

Tom Borgas

Exhibition: 30 October – 28 November

Opening: Friday 30 October, 6pm – 8pm

Tom Borgas presents an ecology of new and archived work from the past ten years. Drawing on Timothy Morton's concept of the hyperobject, it is an ongoing investigation into the complexity of connection through sculptures, drawing, collages and photographs..

Plus ONE

Studio Art Quilt Associates - Oceania Sturt Pea Pod

Exhibition: 4 December 2026 – 9 January 2027

Opening: Friday 4 December, 6pm – 8pm

Plus ONE showcases contemporary art quilts created from the high contrast interplay of black and white with one selected colour. This dramatic exhibition is a celebration of colour, texture, and form due to the diversity of interpretations and techniques utilised by the talented SAQA-Oceania-Sturt Pea Pod artists.
