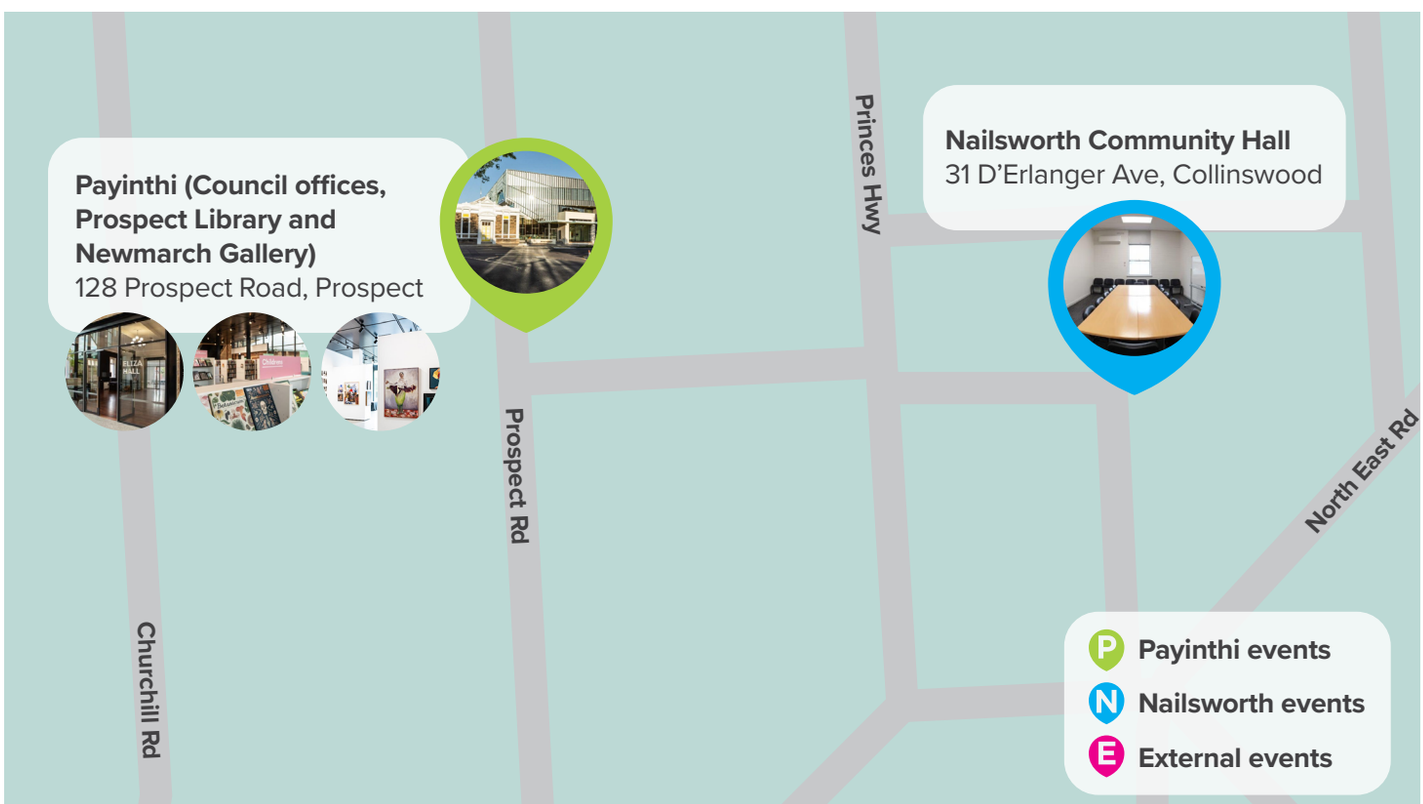
Our community spaces

Discover Prospect's two community spaces.



Hire a Council venue

We provide a range of community venues, meeting rooms and other facilities for hire.

This includes facilities such as the heritage listed Eliza Hall, our open green spaces in Barker Gardens and Prospect Memorial Gardens, or even our Tirkanthi Kuu boardroom for professional functions.

Scan the QR code to view all hireable Council facilities, including upcoming availability and rates, online at SpacetoCo.

Upcoming featured programs and events

Uncover, explore, and be inspired with a variety of exciting programs throughout the year.

Christmas in Prospect

25 November - 25 December 2024

Christmas is a special time of year in Prospect, and this year there are plenty of activities and initiatives across our city. We're proud to be providing a range of exciting community programs over the festive period, from Christmas-themed craft workshops to opportunities to give back. Our local community groups are also getting into the festive spirit with community carols and events, so there's something for everyone happening this season.

To learn more about Christmas in Prospect, visit prospect.sa.gov.au/Christmas.

Summer Reading Challenge

1 December 2024 - 31 January 2025

The Summer Reading Challenge encourages children to discover great authors and illustrators while fostering a love of reading. Aimed at ages 0-18, it is also a great boredom buster during the summer school holiday break!

Eligible participants who complete the full challenge card will go into the draw to win 1 of 2 LEGO prizes.

So what are you waiting for? Pick up your card from the customer service desk at Payinthi, and start reading!

Celebrating 30 years of Twilight Sessions

Fridays in February 2025

Make the most of our balmy summer nights with the return of Twilight Sessions in 2025!

Every Friday night in February, Prospect Memorial Gardens will transform into a vibrant oasis of entertainment, laughter, and community spirit.

Twilight Sessions provide the perfect backdrop for you and your loved ones to unwind, celebrate the end of the work week, and bask in the glorious sunset.

For all the latest updates, visit prospect.sa.gov.au/twilight-sessions. We can't wait to see you there!

Prospect Fringe

21 February - 23 March 2025

We're bringing the Fringe festivities back to Prospect, so get ready for an electrifying mix of music, theatre, comedy, cabaret, children's entertainment, and visual arts taking over our city.

From captivating performances at Payinthi in Eliza Hall and Prospect Library to shows at our local businesses, and lively open-air events at Prospect Memorial Gardens and Vine Street Plaza, there's plenty of opportunities to join the Fringe fun locally.

Keep an eye on our website and social media channels in early 2025 for the official program launch.

Skin Bible

By Niki Sperou

Exhibition: 6 December 2024 – 11 January 2025

Opening: Friday 6 December 2024, 6pm - 8pm

A collaborative social sculpture, laboratory/temple and long term conceptual project by Niki Sperou and [M] Dudeck that supports a durational performance of illuminating the Skin Bible, a lab produced seaweed polymer parchment seeded with the artist's cells.

Clang

By Billy Oakley

Exhibition: 21 February – 22 March 2024

Opening: Friday 21 February, 6pm - 8pm

Billy's work blends personal themes with humour and sincerity, featuring moody, cartoonish paintings of dark landscapes and playful animals. His art explores anxiety, urbanisation, and self through mysterious visuals, inviting viewers into a secret dialogue about dreams and identity.

Intertwined

Selected works from the Prospect Civic Art Collection and Adelaide Festival Centre Works of Art Collection

Curated by Sarah Northcott

Exhibition: 17 January – 15 February 2025

Opening: Friday 17 January, 6pm - 8pm

This exhibition explores connections between these two public collections founded only a few years apart at the close of the 1960s and start of the 1970s when fibre arts exploded into an art movement. Beyond textile and fibre art, the collections are strong with paintings, ceramics and digital works.

Collective Visions

By Photographic Imagery Collective

Exhibition: 28 March – 3 May 2025

Opening: Friday 28 March, 6pm - 8pm

Collective Visions is a showcase of contemporary photography by Ed Douglas, Vicky Dennison, Joe Felber, John Gitsham, David Hume, Mark Kimber, Heather Petty, Sam Oster, and Rosina Possingham. This is a group of photographic artists who are diverse in their practice but united by a desire to advance fine art photography in its scope and reach.

Council services

Community bus

We offer door-to-door community bus services for our residents.

These services are coordinated by the Prospect Community Support Team and our dedicated volunteer bus drivers and bus assistants.

Payinthi/Prospect Library

This service gives you the opportunity to browse through Prospect Library, borrow books, magazines, newspapers and DVDs, and explore the latest exhibitions at Newmarch Gallery.

Available every Tuesday morning, get dropped at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect) and home again.

Door to door shopping

Every Tuesday and Friday morning, this service takes you to Northpark Shopping Centre for grocery shopping, banking, or socialising for around 90 minutes.

Pick up times begin from 9am, depending on numbers and availability. Due to limited space on our community buses, each person is limited to 2 shopping bags or 1 personal shopping trolley.

For more information, please visit prospect.sa.gov.au/community-bus or contact the Prospect Community Support Team on 8269 5355.

Justice of the Peace

We offer free Justice of the Peace (JP) services at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect).

Our volunteer JPs are available from 9am to 4pm Monday to Friday, and 11am to 1pm on Saturdays.

No bookings are necessary, but please ensure the following to help with your session:

- Bring appropriate ID, as the JP will need to confirm your identity
- Ensure you have the original documents for certification
- If you require photocopying services, please bring a debit or credit card as our printing services are cashless

Please note that our drop-in service is limited to approximately 5 minutes per person, and no more than 10 pages that need witnessing. If you have complex documents requiring more time (such as Advance Care Directives), your service may be interrupted once or twice as you will be asked to re-join the queue while others receive assistance.

JPs that can assist in languages other than English

- Vietnamese - Thursdays, 11.30am to 2pm
- Pilipino - Thursdays, 2pm to 4pm
- Arabic - 1st and 5th Saturday of each month, 11am to 1pm

For more information, please visit prospect.sa.gov.au/justice-of-the-peace.

Immunisations

In partnership with Eastern Health Authority (EHA), we offer free immunisation clinics for residents.

Our monthly pop up clinic is held on the second Wednesday of the month from 4pm to 6pm at Payinthi (128 Prospect Road, Prospect).

EHA provides vaccines recommended for children and adults on the National Immunisation Program (NIP) to people with a current Medicare card.

EHA also provides the School Immunisation Program (SIP) and adolescent catch-up programs for students in EHA council areas.

Annual flu vaccinations, including adults and children eligible to receive free flu vaccine under the NIP, are also available.

Book your free immunisation today by visiting eha.sa.gov.au/booking/start.
