- (1) In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

Act means the Local Government Act 1999;

clear days—see subregulations (2) and (3);

deputation means a person or group of persons who wish to appear personally before a council or council committee in order to address the council or committee (as the case may be) on a particular matter;

formal motion means a motion—

- (a) that the meeting proceed to the next business; or
- (b) that the question be put; or
- (c) that the question lie on the table; or
- (d) that the question be adjourned; or
- (e) that the meeting be adjourned¹;

Guiding Principles—see regulation 4;

member means a member of the council or council committee (as the case may be);

point of order means a point raised to draw attention to an alleged breach of the Act or these regulations in relation to the proceedings of a meeting;

presiding member means the person who is the presiding member of a council or council committee (as the case may be) and includes any person who is presiding at a particular meeting;

written notice includes a notice given in a manner or form determined by the council.

- (2) In the calculation of clear days in relation to the giving of notice before a meeting—

- (a) the day on which the notice is given, and the day on which the meeting occurs, will not be taken into account; and

- (b) Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays will be taken into account.
- (3) For the purposes of the calculation of clear days under subregulation (2), if a notice is given after 5 p.m. on a day, the notice will be taken to have been given on the next day.
- (4) For the purposes of these regulations, a vote on whether leave of the meeting is granted may be conducted by a show of hands (but nothing in this subregulation prevents a division from being called in relation to the vote).

Note—

- 1 See regulation 12 for specific provisions about formal motions.

4—Guiding Principles

The following principles (the Guiding Principles) should be applied with respect to the procedures to be observed at a meeting of a council or a council committee:

- (a) procedures should be fair and contribute to open, transparent and informed decision-making;
- (b) procedures should encourage appropriate community participation in the affairs of the council;
- (c) procedures should reflect levels of formality appropriate to the nature and scope of responsibilities exercised at the meeting;
- (d) procedures should be sufficiently certain to give the community and decision-makers confidence in the deliberations undertaken at the meeting.

Part 2—Meetings of councils and key committees

Division 1—Preliminary

5—Application of Part

The provisions of this Part apply to or in relation to—

- (a) the meetings of a council; and
- (b) the meetings of a council committee performing regulatory activities; and
- (c) the meetings of any other council committee if the council has, by resolution, determined that this Part should apply to that committee.

6—Discretionary procedures

- (1) Subject to the requirements of the Act, if a provision of this Part is expressed to be capable of being varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to this regulation, then a council may, by a resolution supported by at least two-thirds of the members of the council entitled to vote on the resolution, determine that a code of practice prepared or adopted by the council that establishes its own procedures for the relevant matter or matters will apply in substitution for the relevant provision (and such a determination will have effect according to its terms).
- (2) A council should, at least once in every financial year, review the operation of a code of practice under this regulation.
- (3) A council may at any time, by resolution supported by at least two-thirds of the members of the council entitled to vote on the resolution, alter a code of practice, or substitute or revoke a code of practice.
- (4) A council must, in considering the exercise of a power under this regulation, take into account the Guiding Principles.
- (7) Regulation 12(4) does not apply to a motion under subregulation (3).
- (8) This regulation does not limit or derogate from the operation of regulation 20¹.

Note—

- 1 Furthermore, if a matter is not dealt with by the Act or these regulations (including under a code of practice under this regulation), then the relevant procedure will be—
 - (a) as determined by the council; or
 - (b) in the case of a council committee where a determination has not been made by the council—as determined by the committee.

- (6) The council or council committee may resolve to allow a deputation to appear despite a contrary ruling by the presiding member.
- (7) A council may refer the hearing of a deputation to a council committee.

12—Motions

- (1) A member may bring forward any business in the form of a written notice of motion.

- (3) A motion the effect of which, if carried, would be to revoke or amend a resolution passed since the last general election of the council must be brought by written notice of motion.
- (4) If a motion under subregulation (3) is lost, a motion to the same effect cannot be brought—
 - (a) until after the expiration of 12 months; or

- (5) Subject to the Act and these regulations, a member may also bring forward any business by way of a motion without notice.
- (6) The presiding member may refuse to accept a motion without notice if, after taking into account the Guiding Principles, he or she considers that the motion should be dealt with by way of a written notice of motion.
- (7) The presiding member may refuse to accept a motion if the subject matter is, in his or her opinion, beyond the power of the council or council committee (as the case may be).
- (8) A motion will lapse if it is not seconded at the appropriate time.
- (9) A member moving or seconding a motion will speak to the motion at the time of moving or seconding the motion.
- (10) A member may only speak once to a motion except—
 - (a) to provide an explanation in regard to a material part of his or her speech, but not so as to introduce any new matter; or
 - (b) with leave of the meeting; or
 - (c) as the mover in reply.
- (11) A member who has spoken to a motion may not at a later stage of the debate move or second an amendment to the motion.
- (12) A member who has not spoken in the debate on a question may move a formal motion.

- (14) If the formal motion is—
 - (a) that the meeting proceed to the next business, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is, in the case of an amendment, that the amendment lapses and the meeting proceeds with the consideration of the motion before the meeting without further reference to the amendment and, in the case of a motion, that the motion lapses and the meeting proceeds to the next item of business; or
 - (b) that the question be put, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that debate is terminated and the question put to the vote by the presiding member without further debate; or
 - (c) that the question lie on the table, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the meeting immediately moves to the next item of business and the question can then only be retrieved at a later time by resolution (and, if so retrieved, debate is then resumed at the point of interruption); or
 - (d) that the question be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the question is disposed of for the time being but debate can be resumed at the later time (at the point of interruption); or

- (e) that the meeting be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the meeting is brought to an end immediately without the consideration of further business.
- (15) If seconded, a formal motion takes precedence and will be put by the presiding member without discussion unless the motion is for an adjournment (in which case discussion may occur (but only occur) on the details for resumption).
- (16) A formal motion does not constitute an amendment to a substantive motion.
- (17) If a formal motion is lost—
 - (a) the meeting will be resumed at the point at which it was interrupted; and
 - (b) if the formal motion was put during debate (and not at the end of debate) on a question, then a similar formal motion (ie a motion to the same effect) cannot be put until at least 1 member has spoken on the question.
- (18) A formal motion for adjournment must include the reason for the adjournment and the details for resumption.
- (19) Any question that lies on the table as a result of a successful formal motion under subregulation (14)(c) lapses at the next general election.
- (20) The chief executive officer must report on each question that lapses under subregulation (19) to the council at the first ordinary meeting of the council after the general election.
- (21) Subregulations (9), (10) and (11) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6.

- (4) If an amendment is lost, only 1 further amendment may be moved to the original motion.
- (5) If an amendment is carried, only 1 further amendment may be moved to the original motion.

- (1) The presiding member, or any other member, may ask the chief executive officer to read out a motion before a vote is taken.
- (2) The presiding member will, in taking a vote, ask for the votes of those members in favour of the question and then for the votes of those members against the question (and may do so as often as is necessary to enable him or her to determine the result of the voting), and will then declare the outcome.

- (2) The chief executive officer may, in tabling a document, indicate that in his or her opinion consideration should be given to dealing with the document on a confidential basis under section 90 or 91 of the Act.

- 8.1.19 The Presiding Member (if necessary) will then seek members to move and second a formal Motion that consideration of any remaining agenda items will be adjourned to a date and time as fixed by the meeting or to be determined by the Chief Executive Officer.

8.2 Maintaining Order

In terms of running the meeting for debates on the items reserved, the following points should be noted:

- 8.2.1 The Member who has reserved an item should be invited to briefly state why it has been withdrawn. If the Member is not prepared to move the recommendation as presented in the report provided, the Presiding Member will in the first instance, seek a Member who is prepared to move the recommendation as presented in the report provided.
- 8.2.2 The mover of the recommendation may speak for not more than five (5) minutes.
- 8.2.3 The Presiding Member will then seek a Member who is prepared to second the recommendation as presented in the report provided.

- 8.2.4 The seconder of the recommendation may speak for not more than five (5) minutes.
- 8.2.5 A motion will lapse if it is not seconded at the appropriate time.
- 8.2.6 The Member who has withdrawn the item should then be called on to speak for not more than five (5) minutes.
- 8.2.7 If the Presiding Member is unable to find Members who are prepared to move and second the recommendation as presented in the report provided, with or without minor variation, the Presiding Member will seek a Member who wishes to move an alternative motion.
- 8.2.8 The Presiding Member may refuse to accept a motion if the subject matter is, in their opinion, beyond the power of the Council or Committee.
- 8.2.9 A member may only speak once to a motion except –
- (a) to provide a brief explanation in regard to a material part of his or her speech, but not so as to introduce any new matter; or
 - (b) with leave of the meeting; or
 - (c) as the mover in reply, or
 - (d) to an amendment.
- 8.2.10 Once a motion has been voted on and is LOST, a new motion regarding the same agenda item may be moved (that may be substantially different to the previous motion just lost).

8.3 Amendments

- 8.3.1 A member who has spoken to a motion may not, at a later stage of the debate, move or second an amendment to the motion.
- 8.3.2 A member who has not spoken to a motion at an earlier stage of the debate may move or second an amendment to the motion.

Note: An amendment is not a new motion and cannot be a direct negative of the motion on the floor. Rather it must be relevant to the motion on the floor (and therefore, must relate to the substance of it) and seek to modify it by adding to or deleting from the motion, without negating it.

- 8.3.3 Once an amendment (and second amendment where applicable) is carried, the amendment becomes the motion which must then be put to the vote in its own right.

Note: The effect, therefore, is that where the Council votes in favour of an amendment it is then required to vote on it for a second time as the substantive motion. The usual course is for the whole original motion, as amended by the amendment, to be put to the vote as the amendment and then, where carried, to be put to the vote again as the substantive motion.

8.4 Speakers

- 8.4.1 It should be particularly noted that a member must not speak for longer than five (5) minutes at any one time without leave of the meeting.
- 8.4.2 Members wishing to speak should raise their hands and be recognised by the Presiding Member. It is desirable to have alternate speakers for and against the motion and for second and subsequent speakers to confine discussion to information or details not adequately covered by previous speakers. These principles do not in any way take away a member's right to speak.
- 8.4.3 If a member seeks to ask a question it is important that the member does not make a speech before or after the question, but asks the question straight away. The Presiding Member must ensure that a member only speaks once to a motion and should rule the member out of order if in asking a question a further speech is being made.
