A message from Mayor, Matt Larwood

‘Opening Twilight Sessions is quickly becoming a highlight of my time as your Mayor.’

There’s been many exciting advancements in our City since our last edition.

We officially endorsed our Strategic Community Plan, which outlines our shared vision and sets forth our strategic path for the future of our city over the next four years. We’ve also released our Advocacy priorities and the roadmap we will be following, as well as our Economic Development Growth Strategy.

February and March have been buzzing with excitement, thanks to the vibrant Prospect Fringe and lively Twilight Sessions. To see our community embrace these fantastic programs, year after year, truly exemplifies the strong connection we have with one another.

As autumn continues, I look forward to celebrating the opening of Kumangka at Broadview in April, engaging with you on the Annual Business Plan and Budget in May, and sharing exciting updates about Prospect Oval.

○ Congratulations to our 2024 Citizen of the Year recipients

On Tuesday 23 January, we held our 2024 Citizen of the Year Awards at Newmarch Gallery to formally recognise the important and valuable work of individuals in our local community.

We wish to congratulate the following award recipients on behalf of our community.

Andrew Ganczarczyk 2024 Citizen of the Year

Andrew is a shining example of dedication and community spirit. Recognising the growing need amidst the cost-of-living crisis, Andrew provided support to those experiencing financial stress through the Adventist Development and Relief Agency (ADRA) Kindness and Health Matters program.

This initiative went beyond simply providing food assistance. Andrew established a food pantry and delivery service, ensuring those in need received regular support. The program then expanded, offering free health checks with volunteer doctors and nurses, fostering a holistic approach to well-being.

Andrew and ADRA's efforts have gone beyond mere aid provision; they've established a robust support system that fosters community engagement, sustainability, and ongoing assistance for those in need.

Fern Bridges Young Citizen of the Year

Fern is a valued member of the Prospect Arts Action Network (PAAN), a group of local artists who support the operations of City of Prospect's Newmarch Gallery. Fern is an invaluable resource to the Gallery, giving time and expertise in the selection of exhibition applications, including the biennial Prospect Portrait Prize. At just 20 years of age, Fern is the epitome of an outstanding volunteer for City of Prospect, who genuinely cares about the importance of the arts and the wellbeing of our local community. Fern has a unique and selfless drive to contribute to the success of Prospect's artistic community.

Anneke Hoffman 2024 Active Citizenship Award

Anneke, a talented local artist, has transformed Prospect's streetscapes with her signature mosaiced stobie poles. These vibrant artworks are a testament to her dedication to beautifying our city and fostering a sense of community.

Residents consistently remark on the joy they experience encountering Anneke's stobie poles during their walks. Her artistic vision has not only enhanced Prospect's aesthetics but also sparked public interest and conversation, bringing a touch of wonder to everyday life.

Congratulations and thank you to this year's nominees. We look forward to formally acknowledging their support and contributions during National Volunteer Week in May.

You can read more about this year's winners, and past winners on our website. Visit prospect.sa.gov.au/citizen-of-the-year to learn more.

Meet our Prospect Rd Golden Ticket winner

Heidi Ioannou almost didn't believe her eyes when she saw she'd won a whopping $5000 worth of prizes thanks to our Prospect Road Golden Ticket competition.

When she and her hubby finally enjoyed their first date night since their baby arrived (at the fantastic Bottega Bandito of course), Heidi snapped some pics for her page, tagging Prospect Road. Sharing her Prospect Road love was the real win right?

As fate would have it, sharing turned into serious winning! Heidi's now the proud recipient of a prize pack fit for royalty.

A true Prospect Road devotee, Heidi loves the area's walkability and the incredible variety of local gems that make the area buzz day and night.

Over the coming months keep your eyes peeled for Heidi strolling down Prospect Road, redeeming her well-deserved prizes from all her favourite spots.

If you see her, be sure to congratulate her, and maybe snag some insider tips on where to find our local hidden culinary gems!

You can keep up with Heidi's food finds by following @thehungryheidi on Instagram.

It's never too late to try a game of croquet

It's apparent that once you join the North Adelaide Croquet Club (NACC) you'll never want to leave!

Over a decade ago, Jean decided she wasn't going to let her 80s slow her down. Craving activity and connection, she picked up a mallet and joined the NACC. Years of competitive play later, she's now in her 90s and still going strong, enjoying the camaraderie of the game and the club's buzzing social scene.

Karen, another Prospect resident, always admired NACC's manicured lawns. After retiring, she decided to take the plunge through the club's "Come and Try" program. What started as a casual curiosity quickly turned into a passion! She discovered croquet was both strategic and social, a perfect fit for keeping her mind sharp and her days lively.

Intrigued? The NACC welcomes curious minds and eager beginners of any age. Call the club on 0409 284 459 or simply drop by 8 Menzies Crescent, Prospect for a visit. You might just discover your new favourite pastime!

Community corner blossoms on Myrtle Street

A familiar corner of Myrtle Street has blossomed into a vibrant community space thanks to local artist Susan Gonis.

Utilising a City of Prospect Quick Response Public Art Grant, Susan transformed the existing street library and park bench with a stunning mosaic mural.

"It was an honour to create and share my mosaic artwork in the spirit of the community," Susan says.

"It's a welcoming meeting spot for a chat, to swap or read a book from the street library and take a seat on the park bench."

The next time you're strolling down Myrtle Street, be sure to stop by and admire Susan's artistic contribution that brings new life to this community gathering place.

○ 2024/25 Annual Business Plan and Budget

Every year, Council prepares an Annual Business Plan and Budget. This plan outlines all the exciting projects and services we aim to deliver in the coming year, ensuring our city continues to thrive.

Recent years have seen fantastic initiatives come to life thanks to your support, including Kumangka at Broadview, Percy Street Reserve upgrade, and beloved community events like Prospect Spring Fair and Twilight Sessions.

This May, we'll be seeking your feedback on the 2024/25 Annual Business Plan and Budget. Your input helps us ensure the services we provide truly reflect the needs and desires of our Prospect community.

Stay tuned online or in person at Payinthe (128 Prospect Rd, Prospect) for ways to get involved and have your say.

○ Have your say on our upcoming consultations

Make sure to join the conversation 24/7 via our Engagement Hub so you never miss your chance to have your voice heard.

Sign up for project notifications today at cityofprospect.engagementhub.com.au.

○ Recycle right with our Resource Recovery Hub

Did you know not all recyclable items can be placed in your yellow recycling bin?

Some items are either too small, too fragile or too hazardous to survive the trip from your kerb to the depot.

Our new Resource Recovery Hub, located at Prospect Library at Payinthe, (128 Prospect Rd, Prospect) now accepts trickier items, such as batteries, light globes, small e-waste, fluorescent tubes and more through our handy hub.

Each of the items received will be reused and recycled to support a range of initiatives, including animal conservation, eyeglasses for those in need and more!

Learn more about where each item ends up at prospect.sa.gov.au/live/resource-recovery-hub.

○ Council steams ahead with weed control trial

Since September, we've been putting an innovative organic foam steam treatment to the test at 5 of our playgrounds to help control common weeds.

This eco-friendly method uses a 100% biodegradable formula packed with natural ingredients like coconut oil and glucose. Imagine, weeding with the power of nature.

The results are nothing short of mind-blowing! Early trials have shown a massive 90% reduction in weed reduction in some areas.

This means safer, weed-free play spaces for our children, all while protecting the environment and their health.

Stay up to date with the trial results by visiting our website.

○ Want to shape the future of transportation across our city?

As our city grows and evolves, a well-designed transport network is key. We've listened to your concerns around traffic and parking, and that's why Council is committed to developing an Integrated Transport Plan (ITP).

Think of the ITP as a road map for a smoother and more sustainable way to get around. Whether you walk, cycle, drive, or take public transport, the ITP will explore ways to improve your experience.

The ITP will consider factors like population changes, aging demographics, and climate change to ensure Prospect remains livable and resilient.

The ITP will identify gaps in our city's current infrastructure and prioritise improvements that make getting around easier.

Developing the ITP is about creating a plan that reflects the needs of our community. In the coming months, we'll be asking you to have your say on your traffic, transport and parking experience within our city.

To ensure you're the first to know when consultation opens, sign up to our Engagement Hub today at cityofprospect.engagementhub.com.au.
